On Wednesday, March 29, 2017 the MDCLC held it's quarterly Attorney Luncheon Seminar. The topic was "The Right to Protest vs. The Authority of Local Government to Regulate Protest" Our distinguished panel members were: City of Miami Gardens Mayor Oliver Gilbert, III, Coral Gables City Attorney Craig Leen, and Miami Assistant City Attorney and Police Advisor George K. Wysong. Miami Gardens City Attorney Sonja Dickens, Chair of the League's City Attorneys Advisory Committee served as the moderator of this panel. The discussion was very interesting and stimulated a productive conversation. For those that attended, CLE Credits were applied for from the Florida Bar. We thank our MDCLC City Attorney's Committee members, North Miami City Attorney Jeff Cazeau, Coral Gables City Attorney Craig Leen, Miami City Attorney Victoria Mendez, Sunny Isles Beach City Attorney Hans Ottinot, Attorney Richard Weiss, and Chair Sonja Dickens for organizing this seminar. We would also like to thank our elected officials and Judges, who were present, Councilmember Anna Hochkammer, Village of Pinecrest, County Court Judge Jason Dimitris, County Court Judge Andrea Wolfson, and County Court Judge Yvonne Colodny.

MDCLC First Vice President, Mayor Oliver Gilbert, III, City of Miami Gardens

(left to right) Assistant City Attorney and Police Advisor George K. Wysong, City of Miami, City Attorney Craig Leen, City of Coral Gables, MDCLC First Vice President, Mayor Oliver Gilbert, III, City of Miami Gardens, City Attorney Sonja Dickens, City of Miami Gardens.