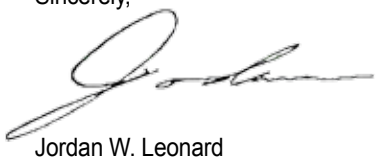
Dear Colleagues & Guests,

Welcome to the Miami-Dade County League of Cities 64th Annual Gala. Tonight, the Executive Board and Board of Directors will take our oath of office among our colleagues, friends and family. But tomorrow, Monday and the upcoming days, weeks and months ahead will be our true challenge to make our communities better. We must strive every day to continue to provide the highest level of service government can deliver for the lowest possible cost. Be constantly mindful of the fact that we are stewards of elected seats that do not belong to us, but rather to the people who elected us. Be strong to represent those that have the weakest voice. Remember that we must lead by example. Most importantly, never forget that we are elected to make the right decisions, not to make the right decisions to get elected.

For most of us these words ring true. But to many residents in Miami-Dade, the mistrust of their elected representatives and government in general is plainly obvious. Regardless of political party affiliation, size of your municipality or budget, most people do not like government or politicians. Here is our opportunity to strive to regain that lost trust, prove that our sacrifice for public service is not in vain and show those we represent that we have more in common than not. Everyone wants a safe, beautiful and well run community with low taxes and a high quality of life. The Miami-Dade County League of Cities exists to help us make that a reality.

As your President, I will work every day to help you succeed in your respective municipality and when we stand together to retain Home Rule from Tallahassee. I encourage every municipality to actively participate this year in becoming successful both individually as a Town, Village or City and collectively as 34 communities with common goals.

Sincerely,



Jordan W. Leonard
Council Member
Town of Bay Harbor Islands
MDCLC President 2018-2019

MDCLC
MIAMI-DADE COUNTY LEAGUE OF CITIES
Est. 1953

Dear Colleagues:

It has been my honor to serve as the Miami-Dade County League of Cities' President. You have entrusted me with this leadership role, and I thank you for allowing me to advocate on behalf of Miami-Dade County's multi-faceted Cities, Towns, and Villages. I especially thank my executive board for their support, as well as, MDCLC Executive Director, Richard Kuper and his dedicated staff.

I began my Presidency with one goal in mind, that goal was to visit every City in this county, and ask municipal leaders one simple question, how can we make our shared space better, and what can we do collectively to make Miami-Dade County better for us, its residents?

As President, we challenged the perspective of local leaders to re-envision seeing policy issues we are confronted with as common to all of us, and not specific to any of us. We no longer have the luxury of clinging to where we are from and not reaching for where we are going. Also, we continue the work of advancing Mass Transportation as a legislative priority for our municipal governments. However, planning, funding, and the building of mass transit is only part of the broader need of addressing housing policies, land use regulations, economic development strategies, and the safety of our kids throughout the county.

There can be no greater example of our commonality than the love we have for our children. For that reason, I am proud that we expanded our best practices conference under my leadership to include sessions that spoke to how we can best keep our children safe and our future hopeful. I am proud of our partnership formed with Miami Dade County Public School's "Together for Children" initiative. This partnership will best address the epidemic of violence that plagues some neighborhoods throughout the county beyond when I am no longer President of this outstanding organization.

In closing, I congratulate Mayor Jordan Leonard of Bay Harbor Islands as he very capably assumes the role of President. I wish him and the rest of the newly appointed executive board members much success as we continue our efforts to progress into a future that our children, and following generations can be proud of.

Sincerely,

Mayor Oliver G. Gilbert III

Jordan,
Congratulations on becoming President of the Miami-Dade County League of Cities. When you first became a Council Member almost ten years ago you had a vision to make the Town you grew up in the best for our then growing family. Today, our family, and hundreds of others enjoy the fruits of your labor. Josh, Bella, Max and I are so proud of you. Just as you succeeded in Bay Harbor, we wish you the best as you begin your Presidency with the same dedication and passion we love.
